US stocks slip on mixed economic data

New York,
US stocks ended lower, as market sentiment was dented by weakening economic data and corporate earnings, and investors digested latest remarks of US Federal Reserve Chairman Jerome Powell. The Dow Jones Industrial Average decreased 33.97 points, or 0.13 percent, to 26,057.98 on Tuesday. The S&P 500 fell 2.21 points, or 0.08 percent, to 2,793.90. The Nasdaq Composite Index fell 5.16 points, or 0.07 percent, to 7,549.30. Xinhua reported. Shares of Home Depot fell nearly 0.9 percent around market close, after the US home improvement supplies retailer reported weaker-than-expected earnings for the fourth quarter of 2018. Shares of Caterpillar also slid over 2.4 percent, after leading Swiss investment bank UBS double downgraded shares of the US construction equipment manufacturing giant, due to weakening global construction demand. UBS sharply downgraded Caterpillar stocks from buy to sell. The bank also slashed its 12-month price target to 125 dollars from 154 dollars per share. Seven of the 11 primary S&P 500 sectors traded lower around market close, with the materials sector down nearly 0.6 percent, leading the losers. Investors digested Powell's testimony to the Senate Banking Committee and his other remarks on Tuesday. Powell reiterated the Fed's patient stance on further interest rate hikes, saying it's currently "a good time to be patient and watch and wait and see" how economic situation evolves. Yet he noted that there have been some "crosscurrents and conflicting signals," although the central bank views "current economic conditions as healthy and the economic outlook as favourable."

ICICI Lombard one of India's, a leading private sector non-life insurance company in India, has entered into a strategic tie-up with AnyTimeLoan.in (ATL) - a leading peer to peer lending platform, to provide insurance cover for its lenders and borrowers. The partnership aims to de-risk exposure of its lenders and borrowers arising from uncertainties such as accidents, critical illness, death, disability, loss of job among others.

ICICI Lombard will offer its proprietary policies - Group Secure Mind and Group Personal Accident - to the customers of AnyTimeLoan.in. This will cover the borrowers of all types of loans facilitated on AnyTimeLoan.in, with minimum policy term of one year to a maximum of three years. The association with AnyTimeLoan.in is a step forward in our endeavor to partner with innovative platforms to increase our reach and offer unique benefits to the customers of our business associates."
